Families and businesses are saving with the help of ENERGY STAR®

Iowa is home to about 180 businesses and organizations participating in U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR program:

- 15 manufacturers of ENERGY STAR certified products
- 14 companies supporting independent certification of ENERGY STAR products and homes
- 64 companies building ENERGY STAR certified homes, 5 of which are committed to building 100% ENERGY STAR, as well as many businesses, schools, governments, and faith-based groups using ENERGY STAR to reduce energy waste.

Across Iowa

- 872 thousand customers were served by ENERGY STAR utility partners in 2018
- 4,051 buildings (almost 242 million square feet) were benchmarked in 2018 using EPA's ENERGY STAR Portfolio Manager
- 47,301 homes have earned the ENERGY STAR
- 304 buildings have earned the ENERGY STAR for superior efficiency, including 136 schools, 1 hotel, 3 hospitals, 44 office buildings and 5 industrial plants.

State Spotlights

Pella Corporation continues to innovate by offering ENERGY STAR certified products that meet the newest program requirements, including options for ENERGY STAR Most Efficient 2015, and partnering with Lawrence Berkeley National Labs to develop new automated shading technology. The company also earned ENERGY STAR Challenge for Industry recognition for three different manufacturing facilities that improved building energy efficiency in excess of 10 percent.

Des Moines Public Schools, the largest public school district in Iowa, spent an average of $114 per student on energy in 2016, more than $90 below the national average, by retrofitting 15 buildings with ENERGY STAR certified LED fixtures and replacement lamps, earning ENERGY STAR certification at 57 properties, and maintaining an average ENERGY STAR 1-100 Score of 91 across its portfolio.

"In addition to manufacturing energy-efficient products, we're dedicated to promoting an appreciation for the value of ENERGY STAR qualified products like Pella windows and doors." – Sandi Robinson, Code and Integrated Marketing Manager, Pella Corporation
